grave yard worker

The town of Holland is about to take on another grave injustice! Wettlaufer is up for re-election and Brian Jonson is running for cemetery commission. Brian can't put cold patch down without putting in for over time now he wants to ravage the cemetery budget as well.. This would be a piss poor move to elect this pompous ass for another three years to any town position. If the public cares about the tax hikes the may want to do something about it.

Mr.

This is a great website Peter. The town of Holland is being well served by it. A pleasure meeting you last evening!

Southbridge

Mr. Peter

Here in Southbridge we have the same kinda of government that your town has. It was reported in todays Southbridge News how 3 people tamper with thier water meters after they were shut off for NON-PAYMENT of the water they used. Problem is that it was the LAZO family, they are members of town government. One of them is even the town council chair. The other on the School Committee. They think they are untouchable and they do what they want. Problem is they do get away with it. They scare people with intimidation and that what allows them to get away with what they do. They even have a business with a liquor lic. that hasnt been open in 6 years if that was you the permit would be gone in 6 months. But with the corrupt goverment that we have in Southbridge they get away with it. So here in Southbridge it goes on just like Holland.

don't be try'n to push "CRACK" on me..

I met this woman the other day she lives down on 1 Hamilton drive, myself and my family have been renting a beautiful summer home a few houses down. And so goes the story the lady tells me her Nancy Dryer Curving anyway so we get into a very odd conversation and she for some reason brings up the topic of CRACK the drug.. Anyhow we do a little more talking and she propositions me to purchase some of this trash from her. Let it be known I will never ever rent that god forsaken place again! Absolutely disgusting! I thought things like this only go on in the city. I guess I was wrong. This woman had the balls to approach me.. a stranger and suggest I purchase drugs. What is the world coming to? If anyone who reads this knows of her, keep clear and keep your kids inside. Even if you don't know her you will when you see her She seems to walk up and down her street at night wearing sunglasses talking to her imaginary friend or very possibly an imaginary pet. None the less I will no longer rent on this street..

Wow!

Wow! What a coincidence the lady told you "her (name was?)Nancy Dryer Curving" (as you wrote) because Nancy E. (44) & Jason P Curving (38) DO INDEED LIVE @ #1 Hamilton Drive while Joyce M. Curving (66) lives @ 6 Hamilton Drive.. Don't know which house on Hamilton Drive you rented but Mary Vanderberg, a well known town official lives @ #27 Hamilton Drive and she might be interested in hearing your story - as well as straighten things out on that street. You did the right thing by revealing matters BUT please don't let that stop you from ever renting again. Holland has a lot of decent folks & is a nice place to live or visit..... I hope the HPD read this blog. Maybe they can do something about matters....

she cant even help herself

Mary vanderberg is moving to another state far away, both of her houses are for sale on hamilton drive, she cant help anyone on the street.

Hope this got a point across

What's the matter Nance?? Peter wouldn't take down something you said is a lie? Guess you should watch what you tell people.. See how rumors start. Hope you learned something. Remember what comes around goes around. Let me hear you've told more stories and see what comes around next.

Not everyone believes the crap that spews from your mouth, if they did they wouldn't have brought what you have been spreading to my attention.

Casey Anthony

To all u Casey Anthony haters and Monday Mornin Quarterbacks bitching and crying about the trial outcome... Get over it!!! A jury found her not guilty. Blame the cops for being inept welfare recipients dressed in blue milking the public if you think she is guilty. As far as her lying to Law Enforcement? Remember Bill Clinton & Monica? Or Weiner? What about Clemens? Cops lie all the time under oath to get convictions. Most politicians including our Holland Officials lie to the people all the time. Also there is a little matter of the fifthamendment. Casey Anthony did not have to say anything to the Cops. Stop complaining and be nice to all Children if you want to do something in memory of little Kaylee Anthony may she RIP.

Wasting money

More often than not I've recently witnessed Holland municaple vehicals everywhere else but holland, from here on I'm taking it as my personal quest to follow and document what these ppl. Are doing on the tax payers buck, wake up Holland! These ppl. You all stupidly voted for are now stealing from you. Look for the red and green highway trucks for starters they are easy to spot they stick out like a sore thumb.
